

Statement of participation

Buteera Disan

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

---

The ‘why’ and ‘what’ of educational leadership and management

This 8-hour free course explored educational leadership and management, and how undertaking research can contribute to good practice.

---

Issue date: 29 May 2017

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.
Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/education/professional-development-education/the-why-and-what-educational-leadership-and-management/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: E859_1

---

The 'why' and 'what' of educational leadership and management

---

<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/education/professional-development-education/the-why-and-what-educational-leadership-and-management/content-section-0>

---

Course summary

This free course, The 'why' and 'what' of educational leadership and management, introduces you to researching educational leadership and management and how undertaking research can contribute to both good practice and the building of leadership capacity.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand educational leadership and management both as a subject of study and as a field of practice
- identify current and emerging leadership situations and issues through analysis
- consider views of what constitutes 'good' leadership and management
- gain insights into the potential for 'capacity building' in educational organisations.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

What counts as 'good' leadership and management?

Section 2

What is capacity building?

Section 3

Conclusion