I have unreasonable conflict from Martin Beresford (the Manager for Work Experience Placement) of the Jobcentre regarding the the distiction between Work Placement (Customer Advisor/Administrator) and Jobsearch. The employer in this case the Job centre is causing a conflict about my liberty with the placement and Jobsearch. I started the Work placement (Customer Advisor/Administrator) at the Jobcentre but its my liberty whilst progressing with the Job is being conflicted by caausing and bringing in unreasonable adjustments with jobsearch tribunal. I know and aware that before I have been carrying out a job search since 2015 but now on a Job placement (Customer Advisor/Administrator) which is being conflicted by other disturbances causing a disruption with my service.

So far, I have been moving on well but such disruptions, unfairness and I believe there is an element of incompetency before ME with that Manager as mentioned above.

Please, look into this sitaution amicably.

Thank you
