Hi, thanks for your email. I have submitted a disruptuon report to the employment tribunal against the job centre Work placement.

I am holding on this and as you may be aware Owen Ellis, I am occupied. If you remember our conversation while you wre here at the Jobcentre Owen, I said it would be best for the Jobcentre to organise that. I am afraid of the disruption and confusion reports the jobcentre may write which I believe it started already thats Martin for feeding Paul information and yet is the one who was airing out such information. There is an element of maladministration.

However, if you could phone the Workplacement office, I am sure its to give you the time and day I may be available.

In my defence, I talked to him what I did with Paul.

Remember the name is Buteera not Buterra.

Thank you Ellis in advance
